SUMMARY DESCRIPTION

The MA Creative Practice is designed to provide a flexible and bespoke programme of study, enabling you to choose from a range of modules delivered by Trinity Laban and our partner organisations, Independent Dance and Siobhan Davies Dance. Studio practice is supported by reflective and theoretical study; modules are devised to be conversant with one another, allowing for an interdisciplinary approach to the development and articulation of your individual research. The MA Creative Practice supports both emergent and professional (dance) artists and movement practitioners in the further development of their practice, facilitated by an environment of intellectual and creative enquiry.

The MA Creative Practice aims:

- To foster the development of a resourceful, self-motivated dance /movement artist through an extended period of sustained enquiry and critical engagement
- To develop you as a reflective practitioner who is critically aware of the reciprocity of theory and practice.
- To enable you to explore and interrogate creative practice in its many forms, taking account of the social, cultural, aesthetic and political contexts in which it is located.
- To develop your ability to address complex issues creatively and systematically, as well as the ability to problem-solve in a variety of artistic contexts through the engagement in practice based research, including collaborative projects.
- To enable you to rigorously develop and clearly articulate your individual practice as research
- To foster a capacity for in-depth independent research over a period of time

The MA Creative Practice offer is divided into two pathways: Transdisciplinary and Dance Professional. Through these tailored routes of study, opportunities are provided to embark upon research within a range of disciplines and (for the more experienced artist), to reflect upon your previous professional experience and its role in your ongoing learning. Areas of study incorporate a diverse range of perspectives, including theoretical and philosophical underpinning of arts practice, visual and body-based art, film making, writing, and somatic practice. Across both areas of focus, there are possibilities to engage in intensive studio-based learning experiences with significant artists and a professional peer group, to deepen your own practice as a performer/maker, develop your understanding of a range of research methodologies within the arts, and to pursue your own area of artistic interest through substantial independent research.

MA Creative Practice: Transdisciplinary:

The Programme comprises a taught element of 4 modules plus an independent project. Research Lab and Project are core and in addition you can choose 3 modules from the module menu in consultation with the Programme Leader to create a bespoke programme of study.

- There are no pre-requisites/co-requisites for undertaking the Transdisciplinary pathway
- Where eligible (determined through interview/audition), students can elect to do Embodied Practice as part of their taught programme of study.
- Students on the Transdisciplinary pathway are not eligible to undertake Investigative Practice (only available for Dance Professional Practice Students)

MA Creative Practice: Dance Professional:

The pathway comprises a taught element of 4 modules plus an independent project. Research Lab, Project, Embodied Practice and Investigative Practice are all core to this path and in addition you can choose one further module from the module menu. Embodied Practice and Investigative Practice are delivered by our partner organisations: Siobhan Davies Dance and Independent Dance. This pathway is designed for dance professionals/movement practitioners/exceptional early graduates with a strong grounding in somatic practice.

- Completion of Embodied Practice is normally a pre-requisite for study on Investigative Practice

Independent Dance

Independent Dance (ID) is an artist-led organisation based at Siobhan Davies Studios, providing a responsive framework to support, sustain and stimulate dance artists in their ongoing development as professionals. It provides a specialist and coherent programme offering opportunities to learn, deepen enquiry, share practice and exchange ideas as part of an interdependent international community. ID works to foster greater international exchange, raise the profile of independent artists' practice, and embraces opportunities that enable artists to interact with a wider artistic and cultural field and contribute to the growth and evolution of the art form.

Siobhan Davies Dance

Siobhan Davies Dance is one of the UK's leading dance organisations. Based at Siobhan Davies Studios the company devises situations in which dance is recognised as a physical model of thought, one that can be experienced in the moment of its doing, whose choreographic information becomes part of a lasting and transferable knowledge, benefitting practices beyond dance.

ASSESSMENT

Overview

The majority of modules are assessed within a practice-based format, often by performance or presentation with supporting reflective/contextual documentation. Usually, following a practical assessment task, there will be an opportunity to discuss the work presented with tutors. This is normally led by tutors but also includes opportunities for peer involvement. Assessors will examine the submitted supporting documentation as part of the assessment. In some modules, the assessment task is wholly written in the form of an essay or proposal and does not include a practical component. For all assessment tasks you will be assessed according to your ability to meet the learning outcomes for the module, and against any specific assessment criteria provided.

What do I have to do to pass?

You must achieve a pass mark of at least 50% in each module taken in order to pass the programme. The mark awarded will reflect the extent to which you have met the descriptors set out in the level 7 marking criteria.

Compensation (the award of credit for a failed module) may be awarded for no more than one module (up to 30 credits), provided that a mark of no less than 45% has been achieved in the module to be compensated. Compensation is not permitted for Project, Research Lab, Embodied Practice (unless on TD programme) and Investigative Practice.

Certain modules may be compensated at the discretion of the assessment board. Compensation is the award of credit for a failed module on the basis of good performance in other modules.

Compensation may only be applied to the following modules:

- Body, Space, Place
- Performance Making
- Dance & the Moving Image
- Self-Directed
