We are delighted to present Trinity Laban's Graduate School Showcase 2024 - the culmination of students' creative work during their postgraduate programmes in the Faculty of Dance.

Experimental and investigative in nature, the work draws upon collaborative and interdisciplinary practices arising from choreographic and performance-making research.

Join us throughout three weeks to see a showcase of final projects from students who have studied MA and MFA Choreography, MA and MFA Creative Practice: Dance Professional, MA and MFA Creative Practice: Transdisciplinary, MA Dance Performance.

The Laban building is compared to a palace in the form of palace memory method, and the neuroscience sensory theory is used to create immersion. The content uses narrative techniques like Aesop's fables to discuss what is love and the good and evil of human nature.

Come with us to explore the love in this journey.

Special thanks:

Special thanks to Charles Linehan, Gary Lambert, Elizabeth Kew-Ross and my dancers.
